HEALDSBURG FUTURE FARMERS COUNTRY FAIR

May 21st-23rd, 2026

2026 marks the 77th annual Healdsburg Future Farmers Country Fair (HFFCF)!

This long-standing event is organized entirely through the volunteer efforts of the HFFCF board of directors and supported by local businesses and community members with a shared goal — to educate, support, and encourage a spirit of agriculture among our local youth.

As one of the only non-profit fairs in the state of California, the Healdsburg Fair relies on the generosity and partnership of organizations, businesses and individuals through direct sponsorships of the Healdsburg Fair and the Fair Awards program, purchase of Sir Rusty tickets, the HFFCF Barn Dance, HFFCF Livestock Show and Auction, wine donations, and more.

Contributions from our community make it possible to put on the Healdsburg Fair each year and provide local youth with the incredible opportunity to showcase their agricultural projects, highlighting their efforts and many months of hard work. We could not do it without your help!

So please, take a moment now and make your contribution to support the 2026 Healdsburg Fair.

Every dollar, every donation makes a difference ... YOU make a difference.

Agriculture is the foundation upon which our community was built. Your support today is an investment in local youth and helps ensure they develop a deeper respect and appreciation for agriculture that can be carried through to future generations — thank you!

Sincerely,

HFFCF Board of Directors
